Some plainer and hard to place lower grade calves fall below these figures.

We ended up with a nice run for our Saturday sale. Feeder steers and heifers remained steady to active across the board. Feeder cattle weighing #500 to #650 saw a very nice demand this week. I would call the market $2 to $4 higher on certain classes of cattle. Plainer cattle seem to have less buyer attention going into the summer months. Packer cows and bulls remained steady to a few dollars cheaper on the cow end of things. As bulls remained steady to active.
