Some plainer and hard to place lower grade calves fall below these figures. **

The market continues to hold strong on #1 quality cattle. Plainer cattle this time of year seem harder to place. I would call this week the market steady to active on top quality cattle with some classes $2 to $3 higher. Packer cows and bulls are still holding surprisingly strong for this time of the year. As more numbers of cows hitting the rail coming off big ranches in the northern part of the state. The market seems to still be holding steady to a few dollars cheaper. Still pretty good figures for cull cows and bulls.
