Some plainer and hard to place lower grade calves fall below these figures. **

Another great sale to continue in the month of May. Feeder steers and heifers sold steady to active with the week before. Some classes a touch softer but quality played a role in the market which affected the averages. Overall quality cattle are still in great demand and plainer cattle less desirable. Packer cows and bulls sold steady to a touch higher. Overall. It was a great day to be a seller.
